DAY 4 OF 10 · MONDAY, OCTOBER 26

Pisa — The Tower & the Table

PIAZZA DEI MIRACOLI · TORRE DI PISA · IL COLONNINO

TEMP	SUNRISE	SUNSET	CONDITIONS
13–17°C	6:46 AM	5:17 PM	Partly cloudy

WHAT TO WEAR

Comfortable, Camera-Ready

Walking shoes with grip
The Tower climb is 294 steps on smooth marble — narrow and slightly slanted. Good grip matters. Don't attempt it in flip-flops or heels.

Light jacket — Piazza dei Miracoli is exposed
The field around the Tower is open and can be breezy. It is about 17°C in the afternoon and drops toward 13°C after sunset (5:17 PM). Bring a layer you can add as the light fades.

Camera or phone — leave the big bag home
Large bags are not allowed inside the Tower. A small crossbody or day bag only. The most important things: tickets and camera. That's it.

PACK YOUR BAG

Keep It Light Today

- ✦ Tower of Pisa tickets — QR on your phone — Timed entry for the optional 3:00 PM climb, covered by your reservation. Without pre-booking, the Tower queue can be 2–3 hours. Confirm your slot the night before.
- ✦ Small daypack or crossbody bag only — Mandatory security check at the Tower entrance. Small bags go through without issue; large ones must be left in paid lockers.
- ✦ Water bottle — Pisa is compact — you won't walk far. But the climb is 294 steps. Stay hydrated before you go up.
- ✦ Sunscreen — The Piazza dei Miracoli lawn is wide open. You'll be outside for at least an hour doing photos and exploring.
- ✦ Cash — €30–50 — Aperitivo, coffee and small purchases along Borgo Stretto and the Arno. Dinner at Il Colonnino is about €45 per person, your own expense.

INSIDER TIPS

The Pisa Most People Miss

01

294 steps — go slowly

The stairs are marble, polished smooth, and slightly canted with the lean. The railing is on one side only. Take your time. The view from the top — the Duomo below you, the Arno in the distance — is the payoff. Groups of max 45 are admitted every 30 minutes.

Stand about 50m from the Tower on the south-west side, facing north. The photographer kneels low. Don't align your hand with the top — push just below the first cornice. The forced-perspective effect is pronounced and very satisfying.

03

Il Colonnino for dinner

Via Sant'Andrea 37/41. An intimate osteria with traditional Pisan cooking, open Monday evening. Dinner is at 7:30 PM. About €45 per person, your own expense.

04

Don't skip the Baptistery

The Tower gets all the press, but the Baptistery is architecturally astonishing — and every 30 minutes a guide demonstrates the echo inside. The polyphonic resonance is unlike anything you'll hear indoors. Entry is not part of the group reservation, which covers the Tower climb only.

"Pisa built a tower that fell — and the whole world came to see it fall."
